Background

Council handles a broad range of information including personal information. The collection, storage, use and disclosure of personal information is regulated under various legislation. A Privacy Management Plan is in place governing the practices and procedures designed to ensure compliance with the 'principles' of information management and protection.

Policy statement

Council collects personal and health information to enable it to operate and perform its functions. It is committed to managing that information in accordance with its legal obligations.

Personal and health information will be used and disclosed for the purpose it is collected or a directly related purpose, unless consent for another use or disclosure is provided or otherwise required or legally authorised. A person may access their personal information, without excessive delay or expense, and may also request the correction of that information in certain circumstances.

Data breaches will be reported to the Information and Privacy Commission NSW under its voluntary data breach reporting scheme, Council's Audit Risk and Improvement Committee, and such other agencies as required by law.
